

FROM YOUR KITCHEN TAP

PROTECT YOUR HEALTH

The best way to protect your and your family's health is with a constant supply of clean, pure water straight from your tap. Zepter Edel Wasser will supply the purest water for all your needs. By drinking 2-3 l of water purified by Zepter Edel Wasser per day you can improve the overall condition of your body, strengthen your immune system and boost your health.

By removing dangerous pollutants from your water, you remove the dangers posed by these toxic substances that can have fatal consequences in the short and long term.

FIND YOUR OWN SOURCE OF PURITY

5-stage filtration system.
Anti-bacterial system.
Sealed water tank ensures your drinking water remains unpolluted and pure.
Wireless and efficient.
Simple and reliable.
Easy to install and to maintain.
Save money today, and for a lifetime.

The chemical processes used to clean water in its municipal source can leave harmful residues as well as affect the taste of your drinking water, these too are removed by the comprehensive 5-stage water filtration process. The Antibacterial filter ensures your water is free from harmful bacteria and viruses that make you ill, offering a last line of defence to your family's health.

Your beauty and appearance will improve by drinking more water; skin, hair, nails and eyes will shine with new luminescence. Pamper your face by washing only with purified water. Your body will appreciate an increased intake of water and for those interested in sport and fitness, see better results straight away. Give Zepter Edel Wasser to your pets and plants, they will also thank you!

Zepter Edel Wasser removes everything harmful from your water leaving you with pure, clean, spring water that is such a pleasure to drink.
